

soundrawing – drawingsound

-or what could be a drawing project under pressure welcome! research! collaborate!

what happens if sound and drawing communicate? (do sound and drawing communicate? or is it just a projection?) and why do artists always have to research everything, like walking through the woods searching for mushrooms, or reflecting upon if it is better rather to listen to a drawing than seeing it...

an interdisciplinary intervention and crossover by elffriede (vienna / austria), one-month-resident of moks featuring: evelyn mürsepp + john grzinich + siim tiirik (mooste / estonia / moks), grit ruhland + konrad behr (dresden / germany) and patrick mcginley (us / eu) welcome to a research project of the visual and the acoustic.

besides individual works by elffriede, evelyn mürsepp, john grzinich and siim tiirik the exhibition presents collaborative projects that circulate around drawing and sound, such as the ongoing interdisciplinary book-cd-film project elffriede.soundrawing with 43 sound-artists, film and sound projects in riga/latvia, a recent workshop in moks, and some other surprises...

evelyn mürsepp: aka e.k.u is a South-Estonia based artist and coordinator, involved with MoKS since its inception.
